

Histoire des travailleurs-euses au cœur de « l'atelier du monde » (XIX^e-XX^e s.) Voyage d'études à Manchester 19-23.10.2022

Programme des activités (version du 12 août 2022)

We 19.10.2022 Vol Genève aéroport à 14:35

Thu 20.10.2022 <https://phm.org.uk/>

People's History Museum - Labour History Archive & Study Centre

10:00-12:00 Prof. Kevin Morgan (Univ. of Manchester) : "Manchester and the Invention of the Social Movement" – talk and discussion, in the Coal Store of the PHM

12:00-13:00 Lunch break at the PHM Café with Kevin Morgan

13:30-15:00 Self-guided visit of the PHM in two groups : <https://phm.org.uk/learn/>

Fri 21.10.2022

10:00-13:00 Science and Industry Museum (Daily 10am-5pm)

<https://www.scienceandindustrymuseum.org.uk/home>

15:00-17:00 Working Class Movement Library, Salford (1pm – 5pm We to Fri)

Group tours by appointment. You can also drop in to browse our ground floor exhibition space any time between 1pm and 5pm Wednesdays to Fridays. Collections to see : pamphlets of the 1790's ; co-operative movement in the 1830s; solidarity with the Republican Government during the Spanish civil war, etc.). www.wcml.org.uk

Saturday 22.10.2022 am

10:00-12:00: Historical walk with historian Michael Herbert: "Riotous, Rebellious and Revolutionary Manchester"

12:15-14:00: Lunch break with Michael Herbert at the Manchester Art Gallery Café

14:00-16:00: Manchester Music Walking Tour by Ed Glinert, starting from Manchester Art Gallery Café

<https://www.letemps.ch/culture/manchester-devint-madchester>

<https://manchestersightseeingtours.com/tour/free-manchester-music-tour/>

Sunday 23.10.2022

11:00-13:00: Pankhurst Centre (open 11am to 4pm)

www.thepankhurstcentre.org.uk

Vol retour depuis Manchester: 18:10 - Arrivée à Genève aéroport 21:00